“Therapeutic jurisprudence is the foundation of Drug Courts and they were developed to deal with a range of issues, including substance abuse and mental health issues. Also know as problem solving courts, Specialty Courts and Therapeutic Courts, because they take a treatment approach to addressing the criminal behavior that is so often fueled by drug addiction or mental issues.”

Therapeutic Justice Foundation

The Therapeutic Justice Foundation in conjunction with the Bexar County Specialty Courts, play an educative role in raising community consciousness about the problem in questions, its causes and resources the courts need to resolve it. In addition TJF joins these courts in advocating for the populations that they deal with and for the increased allocation of community resources needed to resolve their problems.
